

The Trade Union Alliance of Unicredit and the Unicredit EWC support the action of Ver.di and workers in Germany for the struggle in occasion of the national collective bargaining.

These workers are currently on strike against the position of the employers, on the verge of reducing rights and certainties.

We stand on your side to defend the rights to have proper collective bargaining. In these days employers are attacking this right.

This is the reason why it is important that your action have all our warm solidarity and support.
